

Application for a higher semester / change of university / change of degree program

Transfer students are students who were or are already enrolled at another university in the same or related degree program or who are placed in a semester higher than the first semester due to creditable study or examination achievements or periods of study in another degree program.

Program changers are students who are already enrolled at the College of Arts and Sciences and wish to change programs within the college.

University changers / program changers can apply for a change to the HfK Bremen both for the respective summer semester (by January 15) and for the winter semester (by May 31).

The admission figures for places in a higher semester / change of university / change of degree program are calculated each semester. If places are available in the respective study programs for students in a higher semester, applicants can apply via our application portal ARTIST application.

The application is made online via our application portal ARTIST <https://application.hfk-bremen.de>. There you will also find the current application deadlines under "DEADLINES".

Admission is based on submitted artistic or design work (Department of Art and Design) / an artistic-practical examination in the main subject(s) and, if applicable, an artistic-pedagogical examination (Department of Music), a personal interview with the entrance examination committee and the recognition of previous study or examination achievements.

Information for foreign applicants

Please note that proof of German language skills is a mandatory enrollment requirement. Foreign applicants for studies at the Hochschule für Künste must prove that they have a good knowledge of the German language in oral and written communication.
